

RASHID ALI

"A Beautiful Voice"

-AR Rahman

CALL ME RASHID

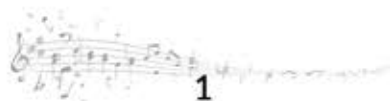

Rashid Ali met A R Rahman in UK at a Charity concert in aid of the earthquake in Gujarat. Following that meeting, Rashid regularly worked with A R Rahman and soon became a household name after massive hits like “Kabhi Kabhi Aditi” and “Kahin To Hogi” from Imran Khan’s super hit debut movie “Jaane Tu Ya Jaane Na”. Rashid’s Bollywood debut was recognised when he was nominated for major film awards such as Filmfare, Star Screen, Stardust and Radio Mirchi. Since then he has been the voice for several Bollywood stars like John Abraham, Ritesh Deshmukh, Abhay Deol and others with hits like ‘Cry Cry’, ‘Keh Do Zara’ and more recently, ‘Nazar Laaye’ from Raanjhanaa.

Rashid has regularly and extensively toured the globe with live performances in US, Canada, Australia, Malaysia, Dubai and so on. He has performed live with The City of Birmingham’s Symphony Orchestra for several projects including a Bollywood project to celebrate the music of RD Burman.

His distinctive voice, virtuosity at playing the Guitar and unique style of composing made him the first Artist to be signed by A R Rahman’s KM Musiq label. His album entitled “Call Me Rashid” was nominated in the Best Indie Pop Album 2012 for Artist Aloud and Radio Mirchi Awards 2013.

Therefore with such credibility and enormous talent, Rashid has established himself as one of the best performers in the country.
